The Peasants is a painting animation feature film set for cinema release globally in fall - winter 2023/2024. It is based on the Nobel prize-winning novel by Wladyslaw Reymont, and is adapted and directed by Dorota Kobiela and Hugh Welchman. It is the follow up film to their 2017 Vincent van Gogh biopic, also a painting animation film, Loving Vincent.

This design painting is serving as the basis for all painting animation of the character of Jasio in the film. Jasio is played by Maciej Musial, a rising star in Poland, who has a leading role in Netflix's recently released series, 1899. Jasio is the Organist's son in The Peasants, and as Reymont was the son of an Organist in a Polish village, it is often thought the character is partially autobiographical.
